

Name: _____

Scrambled Sentences- Compound Subject

Sometimes a sentence talks about more than one person or thing.

Example: Towels and robes are cleaned in the washing machine.

Directions: Put the words in the correct order and write the sentences.

1. rabbit the grass the little chewed tall

Girls and boys play with the fresh snow.

2. stripes cars race have red

Phones and computers need energy to work.

3. knocked door the children on young wooden

Mom and dad helped at the store.

4. boy on floor the the clumsy fell wet

Cows and horses live in a barn

5. car Shari drove new a shiny

Bob and Greg went to the football game.