Name: _____ Date: _____

1. USAGE: COMMONLY CONFUSED WORDS — Which sentence uses your or you're correctly?

a) You're backpack is on the bus.
b) You're invited to my party on Friday.
c) Your going to love this book. d) Is this you're jacket?

2. QUOTATION MARKS — Add the missing punctuation.

"If we hurry," said Amara we can catch the early bus.

3. VOCABULARY: CONTEXT CLUES — What does nocturnal mean?

Many nocturnal animals, such as owls, bats and moths, come out once the sun goes down.

a) covered in fur b) active at night c) very large
d) living in water

4. SUBJECT / VERB AGREEMENT — Underline the subject. Circle the verb that agrees with it.

Each of the bright paintings in the front hallway (shows, show) a desert sunset.

5. SPELLING — Circle the correct spelling.

a very old story that explains something in nature: mythe myth mith mieth