Name: _____ Date: _____

1. PARENTHETICAL ELEMENTS — Add dashes.

The last cookie the one with sprinkles disappeared overnight.

2. FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE — What does the personification suggest?

The stack of homework glared at me from my desk.

a) The homework was already finished.
b) The homework had real eyes. c) The homework fell on the floor.
d) The homework seemed to demand my attention.

3. SPELLING — Circle the correct spelling.

echo (more than one): echoies echoe echoes echos

4. PRONOUNS: SHIFTS — Circle the correct word.

The volunteers rolled up (their, her) sleeves and got to work.

5. VOCABULARY: GREEK AND LATIN ROOTS — Which word means "to build again"?

The root struct means "build."

a) reconstruct b) destruction c) structure d) instruct

6. PARTS OF SPEECH: PREPOSITIONS — Underline the three-word preposition.

We played tag in spite of the scorching heat.