Name: _____ Date: _____

1. SENTENCE VARIETY — Which sentence begins with a participial phrase?

a) Because Omar held the map, we followed him.
b) Holding the map tightly, Omar led the way.
c) Omar held the map and led the way. d) After the hike, Omar rested.

2. CAPITALIZATION — Fix the capital letters.

a) My best Friend, Kenji, moved from Seattle to Chandler last October with his parents and twin sisters.
b) My best friend, Kenji, moved from Seattle to Chandler last October with his Parents and twin sisters.
c) My best friend, Kenji, moved from Seattle to Chandler last october with his parents and twin sisters.
d) My best friend, Kenji, moved from Seattle to Chandler last October with his parents and twin sisters.

3. SPELLING — Circle the correct spelling.

The smell of fresh popcorn was ___. irresistable irrisistible iresistible irresistible

4. FIGURATIVE LANGUAGE — What human quality does the writer give the clock?

The impatient clock ticked louder and louder as we waited.
a) sadness b) kindness c) bravery d) impatience

5. SUBJECT / VERB AGREEMENT — Circle the subject. Choose the verb.

Neither the players nor the coach (wants, want) to cancel the game.

6. SENTENCE COMBINING — Combine the sentences.

Sofia practiced every day.
She wanted to win the spelling bee.

_____

_____