Name: _____ Date: _____

1. PRONOUNS: VAGUE PRONOUNS — Which revision removes the vague pronoun?

Liam and Noah built a model rocket. He painted it red.

a) Liam and Noah built a model rocket. He painted the rocket red.
b) They built a model rocket. He painted it red.
c) Liam and Noah built a model rocket. Noah painted it red.
d) Liam and Noah built a model rocket. He painted it bright red.

2. CAPITALIZATION — Fix the capital letters.

a) During our visit to the museum, president Ruiz of the Tucson History Club spoke about the Civil War.
b) During our visit to the museum, President Ruiz of the Tucson history club spoke about the Civil War.
c) During our visit to the Museum, President Ruiz of the Tucson History Club spoke about the Civil War.
d) During our visit to the museum, President Ruiz of the Tucson History Club spoke about the Civil War.

3. SPELLING — Circle the correct spelling.

The new ___ on Main Street serves tamales. resturant restarant restaurant restaraunt

4. ANALOGIES — Which word completes the analogy?

pebble : boulder :: puddle : ___

a) mud b) splash c) rain d) lake

5. VOCABULARY: CONTEXT CLUES — What does monotonous mean?

The museum guide spoke in a soft, monotonous voice. She never changed her tone, and several visitors began to yawn.

a) loud and exciting b) fast and nervous c) dull and unchanging
d) sweet and musical

6. SENTENCE COMBINING — Combine the sentences.

Ms. Ngata is our librarian.
She stood by the shelves.
She helped each student find a book.

_____

_____