

Kites

Read it out loud. Trace each dotted line, then write it on the line below.

A kite flies when the wind

pushes on it. The string holds the kite steady.

Windy spring days are

great for flying kites.