Name: _____

Subject and Verb: Practice A

Cross out each prepositional phrase. Underline the subject once and the verb twice.

Learn: Cross out the prepositional phrases first. The subject (who or what) is never in a prepositional phrase. Underline it once. The verb (what the subject does or is) gets two lines.

Example: It traveled ~~toward the sun since Monday~~ quickly.

1. To the water Kai must swim with the shovel.
2. The young happy crab floats in the water with the friend later.
3. She could dig inside the tunnel until dinner.
4. They must glide past the reef during the night.
5. The cow can trot near the well during the storm today.
6. The helpful teacher wrote beside the window throughout the day.
7. Among the leaves they are looking during the storm.
8. Two happy boys will dig among the flowers after dinner.
9. The new class is waiting beside the teacher throughout the day.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Subject and Verb: Practice A

Cross out each prepositional phrase. Underline the subject once and the verb twice.

Learn: Cross out the prepositional phrases first. The subject (who or what) is never in a prepositional phrase. Underline it once. The verb (what the subject does or is) gets two lines.

Example: It traveled ~~toward the sun since Monday~~ quickly.

1. ~~To the water~~ Kai must swim ~~with the shovel~~.
2. The young happy crab floats ~~in the water with the friend~~ later.
3. She could dig ~~inside the tunnel until dinner~~.
4. They must glide ~~past the reef during the night~~.
5. The cow can trot ~~near the well during the storm~~ today.
6. The helpful teacher wrote ~~beside the window throughout the day~~.
7. ~~Among the leaves~~ they are looking ~~during the storm~~.
8. Two happy boys will dig ~~among the flowers after dinner~~.
9. The new class is waiting ~~beside the teacher throughout the day~~.