Name: _____

Tricky Subject-Verb Agreement: Activity

Rewrite each sentence so the subject and verb agree.

Learn: Find the real subject (not a word in a prepositional phrase). Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: There was a dog and a cat outside.

There were a dog and a cat outside.

1. None of the water were wasted.

2. Each of the paintings have a frame.

3. The number of students are growing.

4. A number of students has the flu.

5. The committee have made its decision.

6. Measles are a serious illness.

7. The scissors is on the table.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Tricky Subject-Verb Agreement: Activity

Rewrite each sentence so the subject and verb agree.

Learn: Find the real subject (not a word in a prepositional phrase). Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: There was a dog and a cat outside.

There were a dog and a cat outside.

1. None of the water were wasted.

   None of the water was wasted.

2. Each of the paintings have a frame.

   Each of the paintings has a frame.

3. The number of students are growing.

   The number of students is growing.

4. A number of students has the flu.

   A number of students have the flu.

5. The committee have made its decision.

   The committee has made its decision.

6. Measles are a serious illness.

   Measles is a serious illness.

7. The scissors is on the table.

   The scissors are on the table.