Name: _____

Intensive and Reflexive Pronouns: Practice A

Is the pronoun in bold intensive (adds emphasis) or reflexive (needed for the meaning)? Write intensive or reflexive.

Learn: A reflexive pronoun is needed for the meaning (She hurt herself). An intensive pronoun only adds emphasis and could be removed (She herself made it).

Example: He reminded himself to call. reflexive

1. The cat stretched itself in the sun. _____
2. The mayor himself answered the letter. _____
3. They prepared themselves for the test. _____
4. The kids splashed themselves at the pool. _____
5. She bought herself a new book. _____
6. The chef himself tasted the soup. _____
7. The principal herself handed out the awards. _____
8. You yourself said it was easy. _____
9. The author herself signed my copy. _____

Name: ANSWER KEY

Intensive and Reflexive Pronouns: Practice A

Is the pronoun in bold intensive (adds emphasis) or reflexive (needed for the meaning)? Write intensive or reflexive.

Learn: A reflexive pronoun is needed for the meaning (She hurt herself). An intensive pronoun only adds emphasis and could be removed (She herself made it).

Example: He reminded himself to call. reflexive

1. The cat stretched itself in the sun. reflexive
2. The mayor himself answered the letter. intensive
3. They prepared themselves for the test. reflexive
4. The kids splashed themselves at the pool. reflexive
5. She bought herself a new book. reflexive
6. The chef himself tasted the soup. intensive
7. The principal herself handed out the awards. intensive
8. You yourself said it was easy. intensive
9. The author herself signed my copy. intensive