Name: _____

Intensive and Reflexive Pronouns: Practice B

Is the pronoun in bold intensive (adds emphasis) or reflexive (needed for the meaning)? Write intensive or reflexive.

Learn: A reflexive pronoun is needed for the meaning (She hurt herself). An intensive pronoun only adds emphasis and could be removed (She herself made it).

Example: The mayor himself answered the letter. intensive

1. We ourselves planted the garden. _____
2. The kids splashed themselves at the pool. _____
3. I myself saw the comet. _____
4. They prepared themselves for the test. _____
5. The principal herself handed out the awards. _____
6. The cat stretched itself in the sun. _____
7. He reminded himself to call. _____
8. She bought herself a new book. _____
9. The chef himself tasted the soup. _____

Name: ANSWER KEY

Intensive and Reflexive Pronouns: Practice B

Is the pronoun in bold intensive (adds emphasis) or reflexive (needed for the meaning)? Write intensive or reflexive.

Learn: A reflexive pronoun is needed for the meaning (She hurt herself). An intensive pronoun only adds emphasis and could be removed (She herself made it).

Example: The mayor himself answered the letter. intensive

1. We ourselves planted the garden. intensive
2. The kids splashed themselves at the pool. reflexive
3. I myself saw the comet. intensive
4. They prepared themselves for the test. reflexive
5. The principal herself handed out the awards. intensive
6. The cat stretched itself in the sun. reflexive
7. He reminded himself to call. reflexive
8. She bought herself a new book. reflexive
9. The chef himself tasted the soup. intensive