Independent and Dependent Clauses: Practice B

Underline the dependent clause in each sentence.

Learn: A dependent clause has a subject and verb but cannot stand alone. It often starts with because, when, if, although or who.

Example: When the bell rang, the students lined up.

1. Before we left, we locked the door.
2. Leo, who plays the drums, joined the band.
3. I will call you after I get home.
4. Since we had time, we visited the museum.
5. If it snows tomorrow, school will close.
6. The book that I borrowed is overdue.
7. I know that you are right.
8. We stayed inside because it was raining.
9. The dog that lives next door barks all night.
