Name: _____

Tricky Subject-Verb Agreement: Activity

Rewrite each sentence so the subject and verb agree.

Learn: Find the real subject (not a word in a prepositional phrase). Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: Neither the coach nor the players was ready.

Neither the coach nor the players were ready.

1. Each of the paintings have a frame.

_____

2. Everyone in the stands were cheering.

_____

3. The committee have made its decision.

_____

4. None of the books was damaged.

_____

5. Measles are a serious illness.

_____

6. Here is the tickets you wanted.

_____

7. Physics are a hard class.

_____

Name: ANSWER KEY

Tricky Subject-Verb Agreement: Activity

Rewrite each sentence so the subject and verb agree.

Learn: Find the real subject (not a word in a prepositional phrase). Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: Neither the coach nor the players was ready.

Neither the coach nor the players were ready.

1. Each of the paintings have a frame.

   Each of the paintings has a frame.

2. Everyone in the stands were cheering.

   Everyone in the stands was cheering.

3. The committee have made its decision.

   The committee has made its decision.

4. None of the books was damaged.

   None of the books were damaged.

5. Measles are a serious illness.

   Measles is a serious illness.

6. Here is the tickets you wanted.

   Here are the tickets you wanted.

7. Physics are a hard class.

   Physics is a hard class.