Name: _____

Independent and Dependent Clauses: Practice B

Underline the dependent clause in each sentence.

Learn: A dependent clause has a subject and verb but cannot stand alone. It often starts with because, when, if, although or who.

Example: When the bell rang, the students lined up.

1. We stayed inside because it was raining.

2. Although Mia was tired, she finished the race.

3. The book that I borrowed is overdue.

4. Since we had time, we visited the museum.

5. We waited until the movie ended.

6. The dog that lives next door barks all night.

7. If it snows tomorrow, school will close.

8. Before we left, we locked the door.

9. The cake, which Grandma baked, was delicious.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Independent and Dependent Clauses: Practice B

Underline the dependent clause in each sentence.

Learn: A dependent clause has a subject and verb but cannot stand alone. It often starts with because, when, if, although or who.

Example: When the bell rang, the students lined up.

1. We stayed inside because it was raining.
2. Although Mia was tired, she finished the race.
3. The book that I borrowed is overdue.
4. Since we had time, we visited the museum.
5. We waited until the movie ended.
6. The dog that lives next door barks all night.
7. If it snows tomorrow, school will close.
8. Before we left, we locked the door.
9. The cake, which Grandma baked, was delicious.