Name: _____

Noun Clauses: Practice A

Underline the noun clause. Write its job: subject, direct object, object of preposition or predicate noun.

Learn: A noun clause does a noun's job. It often starts with that, what, whoever, how or why.

Example: We talked about what happened. object of preposition

1. What she said surprised everyone. _____
2. The problem is that we are late. _____
3. I know that you are right. _____
4. Tell me what you want. _____
5. She asked if we could help. _____
6. I wonder where the cat went. _____
7. Give the prize to whoever wins. _____
8. Whoever finishes first gets a sticker. _____
9. The truth is that I forgot. _____

Name: ANSWER KEY

Noun Clauses: Practice A

Underline the noun clause. Write its job: subject, direct object, object of preposition or predicate noun.

Learn: A noun clause does a noun's job. It often starts with that, what, whoever, how or why.

Example: We talked about what happened. object of preposition

1. What she said surprised everyone. subject
2. The problem is that we are late. predicate noun
3. I know that you are right. direct object
4. Tell me what you want. direct object
5. She asked if we could help. direct object
6. I wonder where the cat went. direct object
7. Give the prize to whoever wins. object of preposition
8. Whoever finishes first gets a sticker. subject
9. The truth is that I forgot. predicate noun