Name: _____

Noun Clauses: Practice B

Underline the noun clause. Write its job: subject, direct object, object of preposition or predicate noun.

Learn: A noun clause does a noun's job. It often starts with that, what, whoever, how or why.

Example: Why he left is a mystery. subject

1. The truth is that I forgot. _____
2. Whoever finishes first gets a sticker. _____
3. Give the prize to whoever wins. _____
4. Tell me what you want. _____
5. What she said surprised everyone. _____
6. I wonder where the cat went. _____
7. We talked about what happened. _____
8. My hope is that it snows. _____
9. The problem is that we are late. _____

Name: ANSWER KEY

Noun Clauses: Practice B

Underline the noun clause. Write its job: subject, direct object, object of preposition or predicate noun.

Learn: A noun clause does a noun's job. It often starts with that, what, whoever, how or why.

Example: Why he left is a mystery. subject

1. The truth is that I forgot. predicate noun
2. Whoever finishes first gets a sticker. subject
3. Give the prize to whoever wins. object of preposition
4. Tell me what you want. direct object
5. What she said surprised everyone. subject
6. I wonder where the cat went. direct object
7. We talked about what happened. object of preposition
8. My hope is that it snows. predicate noun
9. The problem is that we are late. predicate noun