Name: _____

Prepositions or Infinitives?: Activity

Cross out each prepositional phrase. Underline the subject once and the verb twice.

Learn: Cross out the prepositional phrases first. The subject (who or what) is never in a prepositional phrase. Underline it once. The verb (what the subject does or is) gets two lines.

Example: Three girls might listen ~~by the board throughout the lesson~~.

1. The white goats may eat in the grassy field during the morning.
2. Beside the teacher he sat during math.
3. The hen rested beyond the creek until noon.
4. The happy moms can stir in the bowl after school.
5. The busy tall neighbors should talk in the city after school.
6. Ben waits beside the trough during the storm quietly.
7. A young swimmer played on the grassy field until dark.
8. He is early singing at the round table without help.
9. A mom could cook in the bowl throughout the morning.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Prepositions or Infinitives?: Activity

Cross out each prepositional phrase. Underline the subject once and the verb twice.

Learn: Cross out the prepositional phrases first. The subject (who or what) is never in a prepositional phrase. Underline it once. The verb (what the subject does or is) gets two lines.

Example: Three girls might listen ~~by the board throughout the lesson~~.

1. The white goats may eat ~~in the grassy field during the morning~~.
2. ~~Beside the teacher~~ he sat ~~during math~~.
3. The hen rested ~~beyond the creek until noon~~.
4. The happy moms can stir ~~in the bowl after school~~.
5. The busy tall neighbors should talk ~~in the city after school~~.
6. Ben waits ~~beside the trough during the storm~~ quietly.
7. A young swimmer played ~~on the grassy field until dark~~.
8. He is early singing ~~at the round table without help~~.
9. A mom could cook ~~in the bowl throughout the morning~~.