Name: _____

Indicative, Imperative and Interrogative: Practice B

Write the mood of each verb: indicative, imperative, interrogative, conditional or subjunctive.

Learn: Indicative states a fact. Imperative gives a command. Interrogative asks. Conditional uses would/could. Subjunctive states a wish or an unreal idea (If I were...).

Example: We could win if we practice. conditional

1. Where does Ava live? _____
2. Turn left at the corner. _____
3. I would help if I had time. _____
4. Please sit down. _____
5. It is important that he arrive early. _____
6. If it rains, we might stay home. _____
7. I wish it were summer. _____
8. Leo plays the drums. _____
9. The sun sets at seven. _____

Name: ANSWER KEY

Indicative, Imperative and Interrogative: Practice B

Write the mood of each verb: indicative, imperative, interrogative, conditional or subjunctive.

Learn: Indicative states a fact. Imperative gives a command. Interrogative asks. Conditional uses would/could. Subjunctive states a wish or an unreal idea (If I were...).

Example: We could win if we practice. conditional

1. Where does Ava live? interrogative
2. Turn left at the corner. imperative
3. I would help if I had time. conditional
4. Please sit down. imperative
5. It is important that he arrive early. subjunctive
6. If it rains, we might stay home. conditional
7. I wish it were summer. subjunctive
8. Leo plays the drums. indicative
9. The sun sets at seven. indicative