Name: _____

Tricky Subject-Verb Agreement: Activity

Rewrite each sentence so the subject and verb agree.

Learn: Find the real subject (not a word in a prepositional phrase). Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: The jury agree on the verdict.

The jury agrees on the verdict.

1. Neither the coach nor the players was ready.

2. The committee have made its decision.

3. Each of the paintings have a frame.

4. The number of students are growing.

5. Everyone in the stands were cheering.

6. A number of students has the flu.

7. None of the water were wasted.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Tricky Subject-Verb Agreement: Activity

Rewrite each sentence so the subject and verb agree.

Learn: Find the real subject (not a word in a prepositional phrase). Singular subjects take singular verbs.

Example: The jury agree on the verdict.

The jury agrees on the verdict.

1. Neither the coach nor the players was ready.

   Neither the coach nor the players were ready.

2. The committee have made its decision.

   The committee has made its decision.

3. Each of the paintings have a frame.

   Each of the paintings has a frame.

4. The number of students are growing.

   The number of students is growing.

5. Everyone in the stands were cheering.

   Everyone in the stands was cheering.

6. A number of students has the flu.

   A number of students have the flu.

7. None of the water were wasted.

   None of the water was wasted.