Name: _____

Semicolons, Colons and Confused Words: Practice A

Rewrite each sentence with a semicolon or a colon where it belongs.

Learn: A semicolon joins two closely related sentences. A colon introduces a list or explanation after a complete sentence.

Example: I like soup it is warm.

I like soup; it is warm.

1. Mia studied hard therefore, she passed.

2. The train leaves at 615.

3. Dear Sir

4. We need three things milk, eggs, and bread.

5. Remember this rule be kind.

6. It snowed all night school was canceled.

7. We visited Austin, Texas Denver, Colorado and Reno, Nevada.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Semicolons, Colons and Confused Words: Practice A

Rewrite each sentence with a semicolon or a colon where it belongs.

Learn: A semicolon joins two closely related sentences. A colon introduces a list or explanation after a complete sentence.

Example: I like soup it is warm.

I like soup; it is warm.

1. Mia studied hard therefore, she passed.

   Mia studied hard; therefore, she passed.

2. The train leaves at 615.

   The train leaves at 6:15.

3. Dear Sir

   Dear Sir:

4. We need three things milk, eggs, and bread.

   We need three things: milk, eggs, and bread.

5. Remember this rule be kind.

   Remember this rule: be kind.

6. It snowed all night school was canceled.

   It snowed all night; school was canceled.

7. We visited Austin, Texas Denver, Colorado and Reno, Nevada.

   We visited Austin, Texas; Denver, Colorado; and Reno, Nevada.