Name: _____

Semicolons, Colons and Confused Words: Practice B

Rewrite each sentence with a semicolon or a colon where it belongs.

Learn: A semicolon joins two closely related sentences. A colon introduces a list or explanation after a complete sentence.

Example: The game was over we lost by two.

The game was over; we lost by two.

1. We visited Austin, Texas Denver, Colorado and Reno, Nevada.

2. Mia studied hard therefore, she passed.

3. We need three things milk, eggs, and bread.

4. He had one goal to win.

5. Remember this rule be kind.

6. The train leaves at 615.

7. It snowed all night school was canceled.

Name: ANSWER KEY

Semicolons, Colons and Confused Words: Practice B

Rewrite each sentence with a semicolon or a colon where it belongs.

Learn: A semicolon joins two closely related sentences. A colon introduces a list or explanation after a complete sentence.

Example: The game was over we lost by two.

The game was over; we lost by two.

1. We visited Austin, Texas Denver, Colorado and Reno, Nevada.

   We visited Austin, Texas; Denver, Colorado; and Reno, Nevada.

2. Mia studied hard therefore, she passed.

   Mia studied hard; therefore, she passed.

3. We need three things milk, eggs, and bread.

   We need three things: milk, eggs, and bread.

4. He had one goal to win.

   He had one goal: to win.

5. Remember this rule be kind.

   Remember this rule: be kind.

6. The train leaves at 615.

   The train leaves at 6:15.

7. It snowed all night school was canceled.

   It snowed all night; school was canceled.